hick hungarwarf wome within point blank unge of the most numerous and posserful batteries that have ever yet been used in a single engagement. We have good reason too, to believe that our guns will be managed with admirable tact and precision.
The more important batteries are manned by the South Carolina regulars, for whom the credit is claimed, and I think justly, of being the most expert and practiced heavy artillerists in the Confederate army The forts are well officered, and General Ripley, who has made the study of heavy ordnance a specialty for years; and whose excellence in that particular branch of military knowledge is an admitted fact will make his headquarters at Fort Sum ter as soon as the enemy makes his ap-

It is scarcely possible that any floating thing can breast unharmed the concentrated storm of heavy metal from the guns of Suniter, Moultrie and Battery Bee, the three principal works commanding the throat of the harbor. Nor can the peril of running this terrible guuntlet be diminished by an attempt to pass under cover of the darkness, as has been the case at Vicksburg and New Orleans. So tortorous and intricate is the channel leading to the forts that the most experienced pilots of the harbor would not venture to bring in a vessel by night, under the conditions which the enemy cannot escape, viz: without a light or landmark to guide the way Even when the blockade-running vessels leave the Harbor, it is always necessary to aid their exit by previously arranged lights (shaded) and signals; so that it is reasonably certain that the attacking ironclads must either enter in open day, or incur the imminent hazard of getting aground on one of the most treacherous bars on the Southern coast, which seldom yields a vessel once it has greeped the keel But if, perchance, despite of mazy channel, multiplied torpedoes, and the combined batteries of the forts, some of the pine Monitors should chance to get into port, they would still have to encounter a concentrated fire from other batteries, which, as the Yankee papers have learned from contrabands, ' line the shores of the interior of the harbor." And then will come the "tug of war" which will determine the possesion of the honored old city.

SEIZURES. - In order to put a stop to the reckless hubit of seizing private property by little upstart military officials in North Georgia, it is said that Gov. Brown has prohibited the tamsportation over the State Road of all supplies that have been seized. As seizures originated in Georgia by order of Governor Brown, it would seem but meet and proper that the reform should commence in that State, and by order of the Chief Magistrate who inaugu rated the lawless practice. The practice of seizing private property, which has become so general, not only in this State but throughout the Confederacy, is shameful. There is no excuse for it; and pine cases ont of ten, it is done by irresponsible parties, with a view to enhance the personal interests of those making the seizures .-The sooner the lawless practice is put down the better. It ought never to have originated; there was never any necessity for it in this State, and it is marvelous that the people have patiently submitted to it thus long .- Petersburg Express.

We tell you again, as we, through other channels, have often done before, that, so far as the development and completion of our hopes are concerned, an honorable, free, glorious consummation and establishment of the possession of our legitimate heritage, in trusting to European aid, we shall hazard all to the diplomacy of the veriest chadatans. The philosophic statesman whoever or wherever he may be, who may have marshaled his energies and acquirements of wisdom, and devoted them all to the question of the continuance of this unparalleled war, cannot fail to arrive at the conclusion at last, that the elements—the means of our deliverance—are to be found only in continued self-sacrifices, the stalworth tillage of wery acre of our areable land in grain-corn especially, for it is the bases of almost all sustenance-and the intervention of the Court of Heaven!

arrival of more iron clads, the departure of some of which from Northern ports have been announced, before making their grand attack on Charleston or Savannah, or both. Averaging their entire Leet, transports and all, at three hundred men each, would give them a force of about 40,000 men.—
With such a force they will not dare to remain idle long or fear of the clamor of he abolition pre and yet it will have to ded before their combe largely aug ill undertake, with any manding officers e, the work that has been cut out les them on our coast. Their veloped in a few days.-Let our people be in readiness to meet and repel them at any and every point.

Van Dorn's Vi tory. he Rebel of the 8th has the following : We have the following additional details a dispatch from Maj. C. S. Severson, a gallant officer and perfectly reliable source of information. It was received at 6 o'clock last evening.

COLUMBIA, March 6. Generals Forrest and Van Dorn ay had an engagement near F Van Dorn brought on the fight in from Gen. Forrest flanked in their rear, capture ing twenty-three hundred prisoners, and enty-five hundred small arms. Forrest r capturing the prisoners pursued the my who at last accounts were in full atrent. Capture of a Traitor.

The notorious Texas traitor, Martin D. Mart, says the Marshall Republican, was captured in the Sugar Loaf Moentains, Arkansas, about ten miles south of Fort Smith, on Saurday night, Jen. 17th, by Col Phillip Crump. The particulars, related, are briefly as tollows;

Hart with his man, who are in the Faderal service, the day previous appeared in the rear of our force, and captured a number of our men, and paroled them. He also captured a portion of a train. Crump, on Saturdry encountered two of Hart's command, and represented to them that he and a body of men were Texas refugees on their way to join Hart, and desired to find him. Hare's mer believing Cramp's statement, conducted him to the camp of the traitors. They embraced Hart and twenty-three men, one of whom was killed, and another, it is supposed, got away. Hart, with twenty-three men, were taken. Hart, it will be remembered, was Unionist of the stripe of which we have a lew unblushing specimens yet left in our State, who venture to the very borders of open treason, and with whom, when lately a citizen, he affiliated. He ran away some time last Spring, and the first we heard of him was of his appearance it St. Louis, making an Aboluion speech.

A. Capital Joke. The following excellent joke is well worth the place it occupies. We clip it from an Indiana paper.

A few days since an extra train loaded with jackasses was transported over the quisville and New Albary railroad. The elegraph operator at Salem, a boy, getting wind of it, sent a rumor that Gov. Morton. of Indiana, and Gov Yates, of Illinois, accompanied by a large delegation of Republicans, with bands of misic. etc., would pass through at a certain hour. Immense crowds of enthusiastic Republicans repaired to the depot, hats in hand ready for the expected cheers. When the train thundered in, an aged and venerable owner of a pair of fabulous ears stuck his head out of a stock car and gave vent to a long agos nizing hee-saw that fairly shook the hills round; consternation seized the crowd. and in two minutes not a Republican was to be seen within a mile of the depot. Complaint has been made to the Superintendent against the operator, and he is in momentary expectation of a notice to quit.

The New York correspondent of the nondon Times, in his last letter (Jan. 27,)

The beginning of the end draws near The patience of the people is well nigh xhausted. They have long been disgusted with the war and the administration. The disgust has communicated itself to he army. Confide Even the exterminators and abolitionists have begun to despair of their cause, their President and themselves, and see before them not only the dismemberment of the Union in the North and South, but into a third Republic of the West-accompanied by atter prostrati n of credit, if not by a crowning act of national bankruptcy.
